Florida Inspector General's Office case number 23-14183

AFFIDAVIT OF PROBABLE CAUSE

Comes now, the affiant, Beverly Gordon, Senior Inspector, Florida Inspector General's Office a sworn law enforcement officer, who personally appeared before a notary public or certified officer, makes this affidavit, which has been electronically submitted to the Court. The affiant swears under oath that she has probable cause to believe that certain laws have been violated in Lake County, Florida and that on or about July 21, 2023, Charles Ford did commit Malicious Battery 944.35 (3)(a)(1) and Tampering with Physical Evidence 918.13 (1)(a).

That the events hereinafter set forth occurred at Lake Correctional Institution at 19225 US Highway 27 Clermont Florida in Lake County.
 On July 21, 2022, the suggest Correctional Officer Lieutenant Charles Ford did.

2.	On July 21, 2023, the suspect Correctional Officer Lieutenant Charles Ford did lift the victim off of the ground and slam his body against the door of the food service building. This was witnessed by several officers and from the door handle. Lieutenant Ford then had escorted by the officers present to a private office. Upon entering the office did not have his face or issued uniform. While in the office, Lieutenant Ford struck on his facial area, to the front of his uniform and on to the floor. Inmate orderly Robert Kilpatrick was then brought in to provide cleaning solutions. was then forced to clean up the floor, and when he was unable to clean it properly, the Inmate Kilpatrick finished cleaning it up for him.
	When exited the office the officers who escorted them to the office observed the front of his uniform, on his face and he was He was released to return to his assigned dormitory. Some time later Lieutenant Ford called for to return to the office and he was forced to change his uniform and place it in a box next to the desk the Lieutenant was sitting at. He was given a clean uniform to change in to. His uniform was not found.

Your Affiant believes that probable cause exists for the arrest of Charles Ford for Malicious Battery, and Tampering with Physical Evidence.
